3.Lists
The page does not have a Navigation Bar: All sections are accessible on the page.
Main article subsection: "Read More" -Link to Archived Interviews
-unordered list
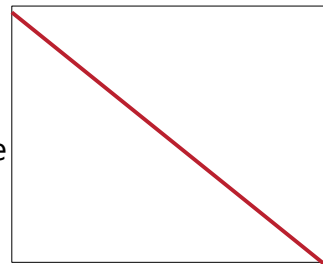

4.Colour Palette

5.Italics, bold face, underlines
The font chosen for the page renders the use of Italics or bold face unnecessary.
The use of underlines is for aesthetics only to separate the header, main body, slideshow and footer.

6.Links, including active, hover and visited states

Links are used behind picture buttons to simplify navigation.
The slideshow cartoon strip is the only area where the screen will darken (turn black) when the left/right arrows are hovered over

7.Icons and Glyphs

The icons will be used as buttons and links to their corresponding pages. This is to simplify the number of pages that need maintenance and to minimize navigation from the home page.

8.Use of images and image style
Most of the images will be fixed and can be found in the images folder.
As these are all illustrations a drop shadow will be applied to create more contrast against the textured background
The slideshow,however, will require an API to ensure that they remain updated as the latest art works available.

9.Forms
A Contact/Comments form will be used on the second page.
This will not require sensitive information and the get element will be applied.
